WOODMEN PICNIC IS IN FULL BLAST

This was Woodmen day at Ada and a large crowd began arriving early this morning to attend the rally and picnic pulled off today and tomorrow.

Because of the non-arrival of a large number of Woodmen until the noon south bound Frisco the parade was postponed from 10:30 until about 1 o'clock. At that hour it formed on Broadway, circled the block via Main, Townsend and 12th, halting at the intersection of 12th and Broadway and raising the national colors. From there it headed for the picnic grounds.

The parade was headed by the Roc band. Then came the degree teams of the W. O. W. and Circle, followed by five tastefully decorated floats of the two orders. The rear was brought up by members of the craft, some in vehicles and some on foot.

At the grounds a number of addresses were made by candidates and their friends, and as the paper goes to press, the degree teams are drilling and a game of ball is in progress between Allen and Ada.

FRISCO WILLING TO CO-OPERATE

That the head officials of the Frisco have lost none of their interest in the good roads movement is evidenced by the following self-explanatory letter:

"St. Louis, July 30, 1912.—My Dear Mr. McNair: I have your letter of the twenty-seventh instant, with reference to furnishing an engineer to make estimate on cost of grading and improving three miles of public road in your vicinity. I am pleased to learn the interest manifested by the have referred the matter to our engi- citizens of Ada along these lines, and ne- ing department and hope to be able to aid you in this work.

"Yours very truly,
"S. A. HUGHEY."

WM. M. FRANKLIN, of Madill, Okla. Democratic Candidate for Congressman-at Large.

What They Say of Franklin.

Hon. Wm. M. Franklin was here last Friday and made one of the finest talks it has been our lot to hear. He spoke on the courthouse lawn to a very well pleased audience and it is our guess that every democrat that heard him will vote for Mr. Franklin.—The Chandler Review.

Hon. William M. Franklin, candidate for congressman-at-large, filled his date here Wednesday night, in addressing a large and attentive crowd that had gathered to hear him, speaking one hour and thirty minutes, delivering one of the most masterful addresses that the voters have had the pleasure of hearing, and it was fully appreciated by every one who heard the statesman.

He stated his position on a number of national questions that confront the American people today, and it could be seen that Franklin is of, with and for the common people.

He has always stood for the common people on every important question, and there is no doubt but what they will stand by him at the polls Tuesday, August 6th.—The Fletcher Times.

Look to the Man and Not to the Money.

Hon. W. M. Franklin, a candidate for Congressman-at large, was here last Saturday and addressed a good sized audience. Senator Franklin made an impression on the people who heard him, and could his coming have been announced so that the people could have heard him, we believe he would have carried this box solid. Mr. Franklin is a self-made man, he has not had the money to spend that many others have had and thus has been placed at a disadvantage, however we believe our people will look to the man and not the money and give him their support August 6th.—The Duke Times.

The Ablest of Them All.

William M. Franklin, candidate for congressman-at-large, has spoken in most every county in the state and his speeches have been referred to by the press as the quintessence of political wisdom," "one of the finest talks it has been our lot to hear," one of the best political treats ever experienced in our town, one of the most masterful addresses that the voters have had the pleasure of hearing, and he is referred to as one of the most able and capable men on the ticket.

REUNION DATE SEPT. 4, 5, AND 6

Change of One Day on Account of Meeting of Confederate Home Board.

Commander A. M. Crow of the local camp of Confederate veterans, informs the News that a slight change has been made in the date of the state reunion. It will begin Wednesday, September 4, instead of Tuesday, the 3d. This change of one day was made at the suggestion of Gen. Hailey. Under the law the official board of the Confederate home must meet on the third and this would prevent any of them from being present at the opening. For this reason the change has been made.

COLD MELONS FOR CONFEDERATE VETERANS

B. H. Frick, manager of the ice factory, has made a generous offer to the Confederate reunion committee. Now that the watermelon season is on, he will store in the ice vaults all melons donated to the reunion and will send them out each day as needed. Some melon growers have already promised help, and the prospect is that an abundant supply will be forthcoming.

FIVE TICKETS IN MISSOURI

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 2.—A state wide primary will be held in Missouri next Tuesday to determine whom the respective parties will put upon the November ballots for state, judicial, congressional and county offices. Five parties have filed nominations for the primary ballot. The democrats and republicans have full tickets, but the socialists, socialist laborites and prohibitionists have some vacancies.

Contrary to the situation existing in many states this year, national politics is not expected to play a very important part in the state campaign in Missouri. Some attempt has been made to inject the Clark-Wilson contest into the fight for the democratic gubernatorial nomination, but without much success. On the republican side, the rivalry between the Taft and Roosevelt followers is manifesting itself in a fight for control of the state organization, but the indications are that the rank and file of the party will pay little attention to the presidential contest in making up the state ticket. The Roosevelt people are focusing their efforts on the election of county chairman with a view to capturing control of the state committee and the state organization later on.

Five aspirants are contesting for the democratic nomination for governor. William S. Cowherd of Kansas City, former congressman and the democratic nominee for governor four years ago, and Elliott W. Major of Bowling Green, at present attorney general, are conceded to be the leaders in the race. Cowherd is generally looked upon as the favorite, since he has the backing of Senators Stone and Reed and other members of the "organization" which has long controlled the democratic party in Missouri.

The other three who seek to head the democratic state ticket are David A. Ball of Louisiana, who claims he was counted out in Cowherd's favor in 1908; August H. Bolte of St. Louis, former lieutenant governor, and James A. Houchin, a millionaire contractor of Jefferson City.

The race for the republican gubernatorial nomination started with five entries, but within a week or two the field has been narrowed by the withdrawal of two of the candidates. Those remaining in the running are John C. McKinley of Unionville, former lieutenant governor. Leon W. Quick city treasurer of St. Louis, and Arthur P. Murphy of Rolla, a former representative in congress.

Spirited contests are on for some of the congressional nominations. The democrats who announced in the Ninth district when it appeared likely that Speaker Champ Clark might go from the capitol to the White House have since withdrawn, leaving Mr. Clark unopposed for renomination. The other representatives who will receive renomination without opposition in their own party are Lloyd of the First, Alexander of the Third, Dickinson of the Sixth, Shackleford of the Eighth, Catlin of the Eleventh, Hensley of the Thirteenth, Russell of the Fourteenth and Rubey of the Sixteenth.

The gubernatorial candidates of the minor parties, each of whom will receive the nomination unopposed, will be: Socialist, William A. Ward of St. Louis; Socialist Labor, Charles Rogers of Kansas City, and Prohibition, Charles E. Stokes of Kansas City.

A Veteran Helps Wilson.

Joseph Wallace is the third man to contribute to the Wilson campaign fund ,he having handed the News 50c to help the good work along. Mr. Wallace is a union veteran and lived many years in Kansas, but was never anything but a loyal democrat, although in Kansas every election meant a funeral for the party. A man who can stick to the party through all that deserves special credit.

A large crowd of Normal students left on every train yesterday afternoon for a short visit to home people. A great number of these will be back for the regular work in September, while a great many others will teach for the next nine months. The educational outlook for our state is not so gloomy after all if we realize how earnest the teaching force is becoming. It indeed takes pluck for a teacher to spend nine months in the school room, and then spend ten weeks of the vacation going to school.

FRISCO FREIGHT AGENTS ORGANIZE

A meeting of the agents of the Frisco road on the Red river division was held at Francis Tuesday. The purpose of the meeting was to organize an association of the Frisco railway agents. There were a large number of agents in attendance and the organization was completed.

The purpose of the organization is for the mutual benefit of the company and employees and the traveling public.

Much good is expected to result from the exchange of ideas, and the study which will naturally be made in an organization of this nature, of the questions which puzzle the local agents, especially the amateurs who will benefit from the experienced.

The meeting was only of the agents of the division of the Frisco in this section and the officers elected are as follows: President, Ira McNair, of Ada; vice president, S. D. King, Hope Ark.; secretary, C. F. Manning, Henryetta.

The association accepted a cordial invitation from the Chamber of Ctmmerce of Holdenville to meet in their headquarters in that city at their next meeting which will be held in September.

Besides this division organization, there is general association which meets twice a year, and the road pays the expenses of the agents while attending. As Mr. McNair puts it, the company is planning to use the brains of the local agents more than formerly, and by active co-operation secure better service. In the general organization Mr. McNair is a member of the committee on accounting and system, together with several agents at the more important points of other states.

M'MILLAN WINS IN TENNESSEE

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 1.—Benton McMillan was an easy winner today in the democratic primary to select a candidate for governor. It was estimated at midnight that he has carried at least seventy-five counties and will poll about half of a total vote of probably 85,000.

The vote was light all over the state, and was especially light in Memphis and Nashville. Independent democrats evidently kept out of the primary, which accounts for the small vote polled by the opponents of McMillan. Ordinarily a democratic state primary should poll 120,000 votes and in the fight between Gov. Patterson and the late Senator Carmack for the democratic gubernatorial nomination about 150,000 votes were polled.

Thomas H. Preston was the second candidate in the race and Walter Faulkned of Lebantn came in third, while Thomas J. Tyne of Nashville and W. R. Crabtree of Chattanooga are close contestants for fourth place.

Judge Felix W. Moore (dem.) was an easy winner over Judge H. N. Cate (rep.) in the race for judge of the court of civil appeals. Representative Finis J. Garrett of the Ninth Congressional district had no trouble in outdistancing his opponent, Judge J. D. Caldwell, for democratic congressional nomination in the district. Judge A. S. Buchanan, candidate for a seat on the supreme court bench was elected without opposition.

Delegates were also elected today for a state democratic convention of August 15 to frame a platform.

"The state! I am the state," so said Louis XIV of France. Teddy seems to have the same idea of himself in his relationship to the bull moose party.

Taft has been notified of the astonishing fact that he was recently nominated as candidate for the presidency by the republican convention. COL. MARCUM SCORES HASKELL

BOTH OFFICIAL AND PRIVATE ACTS ARE SEVERELY CRITICISED.

Col. Marcum, the well known attorney of Muskogee, and former member of the democratic national committee for Indian Territory, addressed a fair sized crowd Thursday evening in the interest of the candidacy of Senator Owen for re-election.

The colonel dealt largely with Haskell's record and also answered some of the campaign reports circulated about Owen by Haskell. He criticised Haskell severely for his action in calling off the grand jury that was investigating the Columbia bank case and another at Muskogee that was very active in pursuit of officers derelict in duty and other malefactors. He also took up the lot cases and raked Haskell for his action in getting his case continued as long as possible and then pleading limitations. He also touched on the numerous suits and judgments against Haskell and some transactions in connection with the Muskogee-Fort Gibson interurban which was recently built by Haskell.

Haskell has had a great deal to say in his literature and speeches about how Owen defrauded Flora Hill, an alleged Creek woman, out of her allotment. Col. Marcum declared that Flora Hill is a negro woman living at Muskogee and that she had given deeds to the allotment in question to five different people, evidently being something of a grafter herself.

He called attention to the fact that although Haskell had charged Owen with being the author of the write-up in the Phoenix in which Mrs. Owen's picture appeared, and which Haskell had sent broadcast, every one connected with the paper had issued statements to the contrary, all of it being the voluntary work of the society editor who obtained the photo from Mrs. Owen's mother, and who wrote the item in question without consulting the Owens anything about it. These statements have been published in the Phoenix over the signatures of all parties concerned.

It was his opinion that Haskell had made a sorry effort in trying to reach the senate by trying to base his campaign on Owen's shortcomings rather than his own merits.

Negro Murderer Still at Large.

Paris, Tex., Aug. 1.—This was a day of excitement in Paris on account of the belief that Leonard Potts, the negro who killed Officer Tedford in Dallas and Sheriff Charles Stephens of Red River county, was somewhere in hiding here.

Last night Sheriff Frazier of Cooper arrested a brother-in-law of Potts at Clarksville and obtained a statement from him that Tuesday night he and Potts were intending to come to Paris. This was before the sheriff was killed.

Believing the negro carried out his original intention and was in hiding here, several officers and a posse engaged in the hunt came to Paris this morning while others remained to scour the country around Clarksville.

The officers who came here were reinforced by other officers and scores of citizens. The compress, oil mill and cotton platform and many barns. furnishing likely hiding places were thoroughly searched, without results.

This evening a feature of the program at the Majestic will be "The Half Breed's Foster Sister." It is a romance of old Mexico and the very essence of pathos. Priestly Quits Republican Party.

Bartlesville, Ok., Aug. 2.—Col. Geo. C. Priestly, National committeeman-elect from Oklahoma, tendered his resignation this evening in a telegram to Charles D. Hilles, Taft campaign manager.

Mr. Priestly gave as his reason that he was elected by Roosevelt republicans by a majority and that he would not desert the men who elected him. His decision was based upon the action of the National committee in deciding the Third District contest. Mr. Priestley's home district, by unseating the Roosevelt delegates. The announcement of his resignation came after a conference here today with ex-Gov. Frank Frantz, Roosevelt leader in the state, and other leaders.

Mr. Priestly left tonight for Chicago where on Saturday he will attend a meeting of the Roosevelt National committeemen.

FORBIDDEN CITY IS ENTERED

Walata, Once the Center of African Civilization, Now Nothing but Heap of Ruins.

Another "Mysterious city of the desert has given up its secrets; Walata has been entered by a white explorer." Until last January Walata—Oualata, the French spell it—was more mysterious even than fabled Timbuctu, its distant neighbor.

In the tenth century Walata was a great city, the center of civilization, from which the religion of Islam spread throughout western Africa.

Up to the twelfth century it was the prosperous capital of the kingdom of Gana, the market to which came all the nations of Africa, with caravan routes across the desert to Tunis, Touat, Tafilelt and Fez. Here gathered the wise men and the doctors of the law of Mahomet.

Then, like all Babylons and all Tyres, it began to decline. Timbuctu, a younger city, gradually stole away its trade and usurped its position as an intellectual center. In the fourteenth century it had lost its splendor.

Two centuries more and the sultans of Morocco, extending their conquests to the south, occupied it and it became only one of the many conquered towns.

Finally Walata became the home of the bands of robbers who terrorized all the country around. With the possible exception of Laing in 1826, no white man had seen it, and its pirate masters had resolved that none should enter it.

But last winter Colonel Roulet, French commandant at Timbuctu, determined to dispel the mystery. At the head of a camel corps of 200 soldiers, he marched across the desert and occupied the city without firing a shot, eighteen years to the month after the French entry into Timbuctu.

Only a few poor families now live in the ruins of what was once a great city, as the remains of its walls, citadel and massive mosques testify. There are left, even, some decorations of the style made familiar by the Alhambra, that prove that once the arts were studied here as well as in the other Moorish empire north of the straits of Gibraltar.

Travel of Two Casks of Wine.

If wine could talk, there are two casks of it which passed through Houston the other day which would tell an interesting story.

This wine, consigned to a firm in Baltimore, was aboard the El Sud when that boat sank just out of Galveston over two weeks ago. Three days ago the casks were picked up by life savers of the United States life saving station at Point Isabel, near Brownsville.

They were brought to Brownsville and turned over to the St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexican railroad. J. A. Brown, general freight agent of the line, ordered the goods shipped on to the firm to whom they were originally consigned. The address of this firm was still visible on the casks and there was no mistaking to whom they should be sent. The wine will be turned over to the Morgan line at Galveston Monday.

There is some doubt existing in the minds of railroad officials as to whom the liquor should be checked. It is the first case on record of goods being given up by the sea to a railroad company, and there is no book in the office for keeping track of this class of freight. The wine was originally sent by the Italian colony of Southern California.—Houston Post.

Boys Copy Desperado's Exploits.

The notoriety given to Bonnot has fired the imagination of an eighteen-year-old boy named Firmin Licardies, living in the French town of Maurs, in the central department of Cantal. This lad, who has been reading the exploits of the band, resolved to imitate Bonnot. He armed himself the other day with a hatchet and a gun, got possession of some cartridges, and then barricaded himself in his room, refusing to leave it. "You will have to dynamite me as they did Bonnot," he cried. Finally the gendarmes were sent for, and as they were surrounding the house the boy fired at them. His next exploit was to escape from an attic window, and he fled to a neighboring wood, where, after a long hunt, he was found making cartridges in a thicket. Three young ruffians also attempted to seize a motor delivery van near Nancy by cutting through the pneumatic tires, but they took to flight without the car, alarmed by the cries of the chauffeur.

Imprisoned In Strong Room.

A somewhat amusing incident, involving the enforced imprisonment of two clerks in the strong room of the Bohemian bank of Prague, Austria, occurred recently. The clerks were engaged in detaching coupons from bonds when the manager, in showing the strong room and the mechanism of the armor plated door to the director of a provincial bank, locked the door upon them. A few minutes later the manager tried to open it, but could not. Several locksmiths were called in, and though they worked hard the whole day, they failed to unlock the door. The Berlin firm who constructed the strong room sent some mechanicians by express train to Prague, but their endeavors were likewise in vain at first. It was only after thirty hours of toil and search that the spring was discovered, the door opened and the two prisoners released. During their imprisonment they had been fed with milk supplied through an india rubber tube slipped through an airhole.

Sancho Panza's Tribute to Sleep.

Now, blessings light on him that first invented this same sleep! It covers a man all over, thoughts and all, like a cloak; it is meat for the hungry, drink for the thirsty, heat for the cold and cold for the hot. It is the current coin that purchases all the pleasures of the world cheap and the balance that sets the king and the shepherd, the fool and the wise man, even.—Cervantes.

Phillips on Matrimony.

The late David Graham Phillips had, like many bachelors, a cynical view of matrimony. Mr. Phillips, at a reunion of Princeton's class of '87, at the Princeton club, said of marriage: "The Persians have a proverb that every young man should consider well before proposing. It runs: 'He that ventureth on matrimony is like unto one who thrusteth his hand into a sack containing many thousands of serpents and one eel. Yet, if the prophet so will it, he may draw forth the eel.'"

Baby's Voice

Every woman's heart responds to the charm and sweetness of a baby's voice, because nature intended her for motherhood. But even the loving nature of a mother shrinks from the ordeal because such a time is usually a period of suffering and danger. Women who use Mother's Friend are saved much discomfort and suffering, and their systems, being thoroughly prepared by this great remedy, are in a healthy condition to meet the time with the least possible suffering and danger. Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers; it is in no sense a remedy for various ills, but its many years of success, and the thousands of endorsements received from women who have used it are a guarantee of the benefit to be derived from its use. This remedy does not accomplish wonders but simply assists nature to perfect its work. Mother's Friend allays nausea, prevents caking of the breasts, and in every way contributes to strong, healthy motherhood. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers.

Alpine Flowers of Mt. Rainier.

Thousands of feet above the sea level, on Mt. Rainier, in the state of Washington, there is a wonderful natural garden of wild flowers. Some of them grow at the very brink of the glaciers, and others even push their way up through melting snow fields in late spring. These little known species would greatly enrich our alpine gardens if we could find out how to transplant and acclimatize them, and undoubtedly some day we shall learn.—Country Life in America.

Advocates Leaves of Soap.

A chemical friend of the Scientific American suggests that a campaign be started against the common cake of soap. About 50 years ago there was sold a form of soap for travelers, consisting of a booklet, about two inches by four inches, in which small leaves of soap paper saturated with soap were bound. Each leaf contained enough soap for one washing of the hands. It is suggested that one might profitably dispense, through a penny-in-the-slot machine, a paper towel in which is folded a sheet of soap paper, for convenient use in public lavatories.

Gas From Peat.

The production of gas from peat having a low water content (up to about 20 per cent.) for use in suction gas (sauggas) engines has already met with success in Germany, but for a number of years efforts have been made to utilize peat with a water content as high as 50 to 60 per cent. and thus eliminate the costly process of drying the raw material.

FULFILLING THE LAW.

(For the Ada Weekly News.)

I knocked at the door of a heart one day,
Demanding immediate entrance there,
But a stubborn portal barred my way
And a voice bade me to beware.

I screamed and stormed, but faster still
Held the bolts and bars against my wrath—
I called down vengeance and every ill,
But the stubborn qoor still barred my path.

In agony and deep remorse
I paused and trembling looked above—
A hand reached down a golden key—
And the door swung wide for the key was "Love."

MOLLIE P. COPE.
Ada, Okla., July 9, 1912.

Perpetuate Old Meanings.

"Ballot" and "suffrage" show how language perpetuates the memory of primitive methods. A "ballot" should be a vote taken with balls—one of the various ancient Greek instruments of secret voting. And the word "suffrage," which by some is derived from "suffrago," a knuckle bone or ankle bone, in that case recalls an early method of recording the vote.

We Have Seen Him Many Times.

There is a good bit of human nature in the dog that barks after the other dog has gone.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Brought Up to Date.

Ships' medicine chests for the British merchant service have undergone regulation, the new requirements of the board of trade abolishing many obsolete drugs and substituting modern medicines in tablet form.

Sensible Man.

A "Twenty-two Years Ago" item from the Wilson County Citizen "Once in a while we hear of a man who knows of a good thing when he gets it. A citizen of Iowa whose wife eloped with another fellow received notice from a neighboring city that the couple had arrived there. He promptly telegraphed: 'Don't arrest the runaways; have decided to let them go to the devil.'"—Kansas City Star.

Couldn't Stand for Beetle.

A young lion-tamer of Jassy, Roumania, fainted the other day in the cage at a moment when the animals were perfectly quiet. She was removed before they did more than show signs of restlessness, and on recovering consciousness exclaimed: "Until the beetle crawling on one of the bars is taken off I am not going in again!"

Primrose Day.

Primrose day (in England), the anniversary of the death of Benjamin Disraeli, Lord Beaconsfield, had its origin in the tribute, a modest wreath of primroses, sent by Queen Victoria for the funeral of Beaconsfield. The general impression that the primrose was Beaconsfield's "favorite" flower came from a misunderstanding of the words attached to the queen's tribute: "F. Victoria. His favorite flower." The public thought the queen meant that the primrose was Beaconsfield's favorite flower, when in truth she meant that it was the favorite flower of the prince consort.

Kentucky Congressional Contests.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 2.—Some lively political contests will be settled in the Kentucky primaries tomorrow for the nomination of representatives in Congress. Nominations will be made in all of the districts excepting the Sixth and the Seventh, in which Representatives Rouse and Cantrill were renominated before the enactment of the state primary law.

In the First district there are several candidates for the seat of Ollie M. James, who has been elevated to the senate. In the Second district Representative Stanley (democrat) has no opposition for renomination by John S. Rhea, a well known politician Congressman Johnson of the Fourth and Congressman Sherley of the Fifth district are unopposed for renomination. Congressman Helm faces strong opposition for renomination in the Eighth. Congressman Fields of the Ninth also has opposition. The Tenth and Eleventh districts are strongly republican. Representative John W. Langley will be renominated in the Tenth and Caleb oPwers in the Eleventh.

Rift in the Lute.

"Isn't springtime grand?" gurgled the sweet young thing. "It is then that nature puts on her most gorgeous raiment, the timid violets peep through their covering of leaves, and the birds voice their happiness in song, and—" "And the cro-cusses," suggested the sapless swain, trying to help out.—Judge.

The Difference.

Men think most of the present—the immediate; and rightly, their calling being to do and to work. Women, on the other hand, more of how things hang together in life; and rightly, too, because their destiny—the destiny of the families—is bound up in this interdependence, and it is exactly this which it is their mission to promote. —Goethe.

Who Is the Best Patriot?

Is it not just that what belongs to the people should be shared by the people? Is a man with no capacity for fighting more useful to his country than a soldier? Is a citizen inferior to a slave? Is an alien, or one who owns some of his country's soil, the best patriot?—Tiberius Gacchus.

Growth of Checks.

The check has become, by the evolution of events, a document having a clearly defined legal status; its form is protected, like the bank note and the bond, against counterfeiting and alteration, and it is charged with the function of carrying on the world's exchanges with a convenience and safety and to an extent which give to it in many respects predominance over coin and bank notes.—Bankers' Magazine.

Separating Lady's Finger Tips.

Many boys pride themselves on their muscular strength. Let a girl place the tips of her forefingers together, keeping her elbows on a level with her shoulders, and challenge any boy to take hold of her wrists and separate them by a steady pull. Unless she be unusually weak or he be very strong, he will probably fail.—Woman's World.
